Here is a selection of some of the iconic city landmarks that you can visit during your time in Toronto:

Toronto Landmarks

CN Tower

When visiting Toronto, it's impossible to miss the CN Tower, once the world's tallest tower. Its towering spire dominates the city's skyline. Experience breathtaking views from the LookOut Level, situated at an impressive height of 346 meters (1,136 feet). Feel a sense of exhilaration as you walk on the Glass Floor at 342 meters (1,122 feet), seemingly floating above the ground. For the ultimate vantage point, venture up to the SkyPod at a staggering 447 meters (1,465 feet) above the bustling city.

Indulge in a satisfying meal at the renowned 360 restaurant, offering delectable cuisine and panoramic vistas. If you're seeking an adrenaline rush beyond the incredible height alone, take your adventure to the next level by booking one of the tower's Edgewalks. Engage in a thrilling, hands-free stroll around the outer ledge of the SkyPod, providing an unforgettable, full-circle experience.

Casa Loma

Prepare to be amazed, for nestled in the heart of Toronto lies an extraordinary marvel: Casa Loma, the sole full-sized castle in North America. Venture up its turrets and be greeted by breathtaking vistas, granting you panoramic views of the cityscape. Step inside and immerse yourself in the splendor of nearly 100 rooms, including a magnificent library that beckons you to lose yourself in its treasures.

Casa Loma holds secrets within its walls, enticing you to discover hidden passageways that lead to unexpected surprises. Explore a remarkable 245-meter tunnel, guiding you to the stables and carriage house, where a captivating exhibit of vintage cars from the early 1900s awaits. When you step outside, you'll be greeted by 5 acres of enchanting gardens, adorned with vibrant flowers, elegant sculptures, and charming fountains that evoke a sense of timeless beauty, history and culture.
